

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP IN THE CHEESE BOARD PIZZA COLLECTIVE

Brief Description of the Cheese Board Pizza Collective

The Cheese Board Pizza Collective is an independently operated adjunct to the larger Cheese Board Collective. Currently, we are a collective of sixteen people. Everyone who works at the Cheese Board Pizza is a member of the collective with equal decision-making power. There is no boss, manager, or employees—it is worker-owned. Everyone makes the same hourly wage, currently $21 per hour. We receive paid time off, medical and dental benefits. There is a six-month probation period.

Work Description

Members work together in a close-knit environment and are involved in every aspect of operating the business. Some of these tasks include conceptualizing menus, preparing ingredients, making dough, building and baking pizzas, cashiering, ordering, and light bookkeeping. Everyone is given the opportunity to learn every task in the business. We all share in the considerable amount of clean up work.

Work Expectations and Requirements of New Members

- The work is fast and often pressured. Working hard and being punctual are essential, as are a strong back and physical strength.
- New members are expected to work full time.
- It is sometimes difficult to get time off on weekends and holidays, and new members are expected to substitute frequently, often on short notice.
- Interest in a long-term commitment, at least five years, is a prerequisite.
